Subject: Notification SNA Zonal Level Conference(11.07.2025)

This is to inform all faculty members and students that 25 students from our college will be participating in the SNA Zonal Level Conference scheduled to be held on 11.07.2025 at Deepthi College of Nursing, Namakkal.

These selected students have been officially nominated to represent our institution at the zonal-level event. Faculty members concerned are requested to provide necessary support and make suitable academic arrangements for the participating students.

We wish all participants the very best for their active involvement and representation at the conference.

For any queries or coordination regarding the event, please contact the SNA Coordinator or the respective Head of the Department.

Note: Final year B.Sc (N) students must continue to follow their internship duty rosters as per SKS Hospital guidelines without interruption.

Thank you for your cooperation.
